Business memberships provide unlimited golf for any named employee members including league and tournament play. Reciprocal golf is not permitted under this membership classification. Family members of employees included under this membership are not included in the membership although they can play as guests. Certain restrictions and greens fees apply.

Young Golfer Classifications

The Cortland Country club is committed to the advancement of the game of golf and has four membership classifications which have been designed to appeal to and support young golfers. Each of the classifications below has been developed and priced with the goal of making the country club accessible and affordable for young golfers across our region. The club welcomes players of all ages and abilities and encourages its members to utilize the teaching talents of our head and assistant PGA professionals and our practice facilities. It is the club's goal to encourage area youth and young adults to take up the game of golf and to develop their skills in a warm and welcoming environment.
