Martha's Email: mwells@cortlandcc.com Phone: 607-753-3336 ext. 7

Martha Wells is a PGA of America member who most recently was the Head Professional at the Country Club of Ithaca. She grew up golfing at Cortland Country Club and has deep roots at the facility. She competed on the Penn State University Women's Golf Team from 1989-1993 and graduated with a BS in Biology. The golf profession ended up being her career. A career which spans from Colorado, where she served as an Assistant Professional in Estes Park and where she passed her Player Ability Test to enter the PGA of America, to Central New York. Martha's next career step was in Arizona at the Phoenician Resort, where her customer service training began and flourished.

Martha's next opportunity was at Desert Forest in Carefree, Arizona and then on to Phoenix Country Club. Martha then moved to Alberta, Canada and joined the Canadian PGA. She worked as an Assistant Professional at Medicine Hat Golf and Country Club for eight seasons was the Alberta PGA Women's Champion and was the Head Coach of the Women's Golf Team at Medicine Hat College. Martha then moved back to Central New York where she became a head professional for the first time at Radisson Greens from spring 2010-fall 2011. In 2012, she assumed the Head Golf Professional position at the Country Club of Ithaca, where she worked for the next 6 years.

During this time, she was awarded several accolades from the CNYPGA including Merchandiser of the Year for Private Facilities for three consecutive years (2015-2017), National Finalist for PGA Merchandiser of the Year for Private Facilities (2016-2017) and the CNYPGA Golf Professional of the Year for 2017.

Martha is a USKids Certified Coach (2016-current) and co-chair of the Player Development Committee for the CNYPGA. She is also serving her second term on the CNYPGA Board of Directors. Martha brings her expectations of outstanding customer service, event planning, and seamless coordination of golf and dining events to the CCC. She looks forward to continuing the great tradition, rich history, and the excellence of Cortland Country Club.
